From the Council Chair . . .

Fall Fling was a stellar event this year thanks to Connie Davenport and her wonderful committee. The interest group and project chairs displayed information about their groups. Judith Jacques, one of the young women from Marymount who attended the AAUW Women's Leadership Conference this summer, inspired all of us as she talked about her experience there. We were entertained by our own Anne Destabelle with her original AAUW-PVP rendition of "I Can't Say No". She was then joined by Joan Perkins to present several Stephen Foster songs.

We are especially glad to welcome 13 new members to the branch. JoAnn DeFlon and Helen Cannefax joined during the summer, and others either joined or indicated their intention to be members at Fall Fling. Welcome JoAnn and Helen, Holly Cain, Marjeanne Blinn, Robin Franko, Tori Health, Jarlath Samaha, Susan Wilcox, Berta Bilezikjian, Lynn Fernandez, Vera Pashky, Lucille Ciuffini and Jane Gruys.

So we're off and running. Remember, all AAUW-PVP members are leaders and have a voice in branch operations, so we hope to see everyone at the September 10th Branch Council Meeting at 2 pm at Hesse Park. It's the perfect place to "get in the know" about the branch and enjoy being with other members. Nancy Mahr, who is a member of the state Public Policy Committee, will be bringing us up to date about policy priorities.

Hope to see you September 10th.

Sherry

Branch Business Update

Planning Meeting

In June, members met at the Seaview Villas Clubhouse, enjoyed lunch arranged by Fran Wielin and set to work on establishing plans for the 2013-2014 operating year which began in July. Minutes of the planning session of the June meeting, taken by Eileen Edelson, are detailed beginning on page 9 of this issue. This article outlines the business conducted at the June meeting. Council Chair, Sherry May, summarized a very successful year for our branch. Read her meeting comments on page 5.

New Branch Treasurer

In June, the branch Council regretfully accepted the resignation of Fleur Yano who was re-elected as branch treasurer in May. Fleur has done a wonderful job in keeping the branch financial records, which were recently reviewed by Nell Mirels for the 2012-2013 operating year and found to be complete, accurate and well organized. (See Nell's report on page 4). Fleur has held the post of treasurer since 2009 and prior to assuming that role was our membership treasurer for many years. Fleur intends to stay active with our branch and is currently transferring her responsibilities to our newly appointed branch treasurer.

The appointment of Faith Morrow as new branch treasurer by Council Chair Sherry May was unanimously approved at the branch June planning meeting. Faith has been a member of AAUW Palos Verdes for about five years and is active in the Eclectic Readers book group and on our Tech Trek Committee as well as being a very good bridge player. She is also responsible for getting CoastLines delivered to our snail-mail members. Faith believes she missed her calling in life and should have been an accountant because she loves working with figures. She thinks she's been treasurer of every group she's joined. Faith also did bookkeeping for local businesses, including the Palos Verdes Directory from which she just retired last year after 39 years as their Business Manager.

Tech Trek Leadership Changes

This year Mary Palmer has decided to step down after many years as a co-chair of Tech Trek and a prior school coordinator. As a former teacher at Wilmington Middle School, Mary is a major reason for our strong connection and good working relationship with this school and for the success of our Tech Trek program in recent years as we expanded to include Dana Middle School.

Dale Richards will continue in her role as Tech Trek co-chair. In 2009, when Judy Purvis and Maria Ashla were co-chairs of the program, Dale and Mary took over the responsibility for student selection. In 2011, when Judy and Maria stepped down, Dale and Mary took full responsibility for Tech Trek. Dale will be joined for the 2014 program by new co-chair Denise DeVenuto, who has been a member of the Tech Trek committee since joining our branch. Denise has served as a school coordinator and has also been a camper mentor.

Member to Assist with Publicity

A few months ago Connie Davenport posted a request for help with branch publicity. At the June planning meeting Myrna Plost agreed to work with Connie to prepare and distribute press releases for branch events and programs.

Correction to Reported AAUW-CA Election Results

In the August issue of CoastLines, we published results for the AAUW-CA election. In those results we stated that the proposal to increase state dues by $4 effective 2014-15 was PASSED. We have since been advised that this proposal FAILED due to the fact that the state bylaws provide that a dues increase must be approved by 2/3 (66%) of the voting membership. The proposal received only 63% approval by those members voting which means the increase did not receive a sufficient number of votes and was NOT PASSED. Thanks to Jo Harberson, AAUW Leadership Corps, for bringing this to our attention.

Branch Financial Review Results

Nell Mirels, as the reviewer of the branch financial records for the 2012-2013 operating year, has completed her review and submitted her report (reprinted below) to Council for distribution to the members of AAUW Palos Verdes branch.

PALOS VERDES PENINSULA BRANCH

Financial Review of Branch Accounts
July 1, 2012 through June 30, 2013

I have reviewed the financial records of the Palos Verdes Peninsula branch of AAUW for the fiscal year July 1, 2012 through June 30, 2013. I reviewed the bank statements, monthly requests for payment with appropriate documentation of expenditures, monthly treasurer's reports and spread sheets.

I am happy to report that I found everything to be in good order, all accounts in balance and all expenditures properly authorized and verified. All reports are well organized and easy to follow.

All records are complete and in readiness to be passed on to next year's treasurer.

The treasurer is to be complimented on a very thorough job.

Passing of a Life Member

Beryl Denke, an Honorary Life Member of the Palos Verdes Peninsula Branch, passed away on July 30th. Beryl was a graduate of the University of Washington and earned her Master of Arts degree at Cal Berkeley. She had a long marriage to Paul Denke and was the mother of three accomplished daughters and had several grandchildren. In addition to her active membership in AAUW over many years, she held leadership positions in the Palos Verdes branch of League of Women Voters and was active in her church community, St. Peter's by the Sea, until the end of her life.

Many of us knew her as a brilliant, opinionated, outspoken and entertaining member of Night Books. Being the book group's oldest member, she often brought perspective and experiences to the group from a period many of us knew only second hand. After she retired from this group, due to inability to read any longer, she discovered books on tape and would take trips to PV Library with her caretaker, Susan, to choose histories and biographies from their selection. We fondly remember Beryl, who brought intellect and laughter to us and we will miss her.

It Was a Very Good Year

We've had a very successful transition from an elected board governing body to a leadership council structure. It's still an experiment in progress, but it's working. This structure provides flexibility, creativity, eliminates guilt, provides for more valued short-term commitments over mandated positions and required events and we've eliminated the "we've always done it" excuse. The bi-monthly meetings are working well. We've successfully celebrated our 55th birthday and our annual meeting was very successful as well. The WAWA (Who Are We Anyway?) interest group continues to focus on the AAUW mission and keeping the leadership council involved. Our financial situation is solid and our communications (local publicity, website, CoastLines) are strong and getting the word out.

Some Interesting Facts and Figures

- Membership is steady at 124 and we are continuing to reach out to more new members
- We have fourteen (14) interest groups and an interest in more to come
- Members are involved in five (5) on-going projects: Tech Trek, Exploring Science, Readers Theater Marymount College Affiliation and the PV High School Valedictorian program
- We had twelve (12) special events this past year: Half the Sky outing at the Skirball, MisRepresentation film with the Library, Building Blocks for Successful Aging with Helen Dennis at the Library, Museum of Tolerance outing, Showing of The Invisible War, Two campaign events with the League of Women Voters, Branch 55th birthday celebration, Premier of Athletes in Skirts by our own Readers Theater, Fall Fling, January Social and June Awards Luncheon

Collaborations and Connections

Our branch continues to value our collaboration with other groups. This year we have worked with the League of Women Voters, the Palos Verdes Library District and Marymount College. Readers Theater has delivered programs to the Long Beach branch and PV Seniors. The Women in Transition group has met jointly with Torrance and Beach Cities branch members. Exploring Science has brought women science professionals to local Girl Scouts and our Tech Trek campers have once again joined with the Torrance branch for camp orientation.

On a more internal note, we have strengthened our AAUW National, AAUW California and LACIC (Los Angeles County Interbranch Council) ties. We supported the It's My Voice: I Will Be Heard Campaign and worked with Marymount to send female students to the National Student Leadership Conference. Our own Nancy Mahr served on the California public policy committee and has presented to both our branch and LACIC. Marion Smith, Maria Ashla and Sherry May attended LACIC meetings to represent our branch. In November, several branch members met with Claudia Richards from the National office.

Task Forces and Reports

This past year several task forces were established to study specific issues and make recommendations to Council. These included Valedictorian Scholarships, Community Outreach and Tech Trek. Reports of these task force findings have been published to membership throughout the year. In addition, we have taken a complete inventory of all branch property. Coming attractions for 2013-2014 include an International Women's Issues exploratory group and a Later Life Issues and Village Concept group. There is also the need to consider integration of our communication tools and inclusion of new technology. There's more to come so stay tuned.

Thank You 2013 Tech Trek Camp Donors

Thanks to the support of branch members and friends, this year our branch awarded fourteen (14) Tech Trek scholarships! Girls from Wilmington and Dana Middle Schools attended Tech Trek science and math camps this summer at UC Irvine, UC San Diego and UC Santa Barbara.

This many scholarships would never have been possible without the generosity of our members since our Tech Trek program does not receive any corporate or commercial sponsorship. Thank you to the following donors for their support.

Tech Trek Donations Always Welcome

Celebrate Tech Trek, held each year early in the Fall and scheduled this year for September 22, is our annual Tech Trek fundraising program. Donations to support Tech Trek are always welcome but are especially important now so we know how many girls our branch might be able to send to Tech Trek camp during the summer of 2014 and to ensure enough reservations. This is such a popular and successful program that camps fill to capacity very quickly. If you plan to make a donation to Tech Trek, please consider making it now rather than at year end. Thank you.

Tech Trek is a math and science program designed to develop interest, excitement and self-confidence in young women who will enter 8th grade in the fall. The program has been in operation for 17 years. Our branch has sent girls to camp since 1998 when one girl was sponsored. Since 2007, we have sponsored from 11 to 14 girls annually.

Tech Trek encourages girls to pursue further study and future careers in the STEM fields – science, technology, engineering and math.

Santa Barbara – Blackwell Session

I attended an open house and career presentations for 78 girls attending UCSB Tech Trek. My daughter, Laura Kranzler, presented information about her past position as an oil company engineer and her current position as an engineer for the Ventura Air Quality Control District.

Laura graduated from UCSB Engineering School and is an environmental engineer. She was one of eight women in professional and technical careers who delivered presentations at Tech Trek. Laura introduced the girls to offshore drilling and took them on a boat to Platform Holly, where Laura monitored for pollution control. The girls were also assigned a team project, which required them to build a model on top of an obsolete oil platform to determine alternate uses for it once it was no longer pumping oil.

Campers Dayana, Gabriela and Mia with Laura at Blackwell Session

Laura brought photos of her work on Platform Holly and other out of commission platforms now used as bird nesting areas. She also talked about how the girls could pursue a similar career. She met three of the girls we sponsored who attended this camp session – Dayana, Gabriela and Mia. Laura told me she found the experience of talking with the campers most satisfying and she's been told that she'll be invited back as a speaker.

Santa Barbara – Hypatia Session

One of the major strengths of the Tech Trek program at UCSB became evident to me when my husband and I visited on Thursday, August 1, during the Hypatia Session. A junior counselor gave us a tour and we observed the students doing hands-on activities in each of the four core classes: physics, chemistry, ecology and energy.

At the direction of the teachers, each team encounters challenges while working on projects. They have to construct an object with only the materials they're been given, sometimes must communicate without words and, on occasion, accomplish a task using only one hand. Two girls from each class meet to bring their learning from each of these four science disciplines to form teams and develop creative uses for a rather unsightly decommissioned oil rig that's within sight of UCSB's campus.

My husband, who has 30 years experience as an aerospace project engineer, observed, "This is the kind of training engineers need to work collaboratively to solve real world problems." Britney, a student from Wilmington Middle School sponsored by our branch, remarked, "We actually cooperated in groups to do the project. I think the oil rig project was a very good experience. All the things I learned at Tech Trek will affect me this year in 8th grade."

School Contracts

Wilmington Middle School - Denise DeVenuto and Marianne Dewar

Dana Middle School - Kathy Fitzgerald and Ruth Bloland

These women visited the schools to deliver nomination forms to teachers, distribute essay questions, collect materials and arrange the interview date at the school.

Essay Readers

Wilmington Middle School - Denise DeVenuto, Marianne Dewar, Susan Grimshaw, Deedee Rehtin and Rowie Wolf

Dana Middle School - Kathy Fitzgerald, Jan Hurlbut, Jacky Mason, Myrna Plost, Susan Wallace, Judy Willis and Rowie Wolf

These volunteers read each application and essay submitted by the girls. Then, based on the quality of each essay, they selected the nominees to be interviewed.

Interviewers

Wilmington Middle School - Ellen Alkon, Denise DeVenuto, Kathy Fitzgerald, Faith Morrow, Mary Palmer, Myrna Plost, Deedee Rehtin, Dale Richards and Rowie Wolf

Dana Middle School - Jan Hurlbut, Karen Marcus, Mary Palmer, Dale Richards, Susan Wallace, Judy Willis, Jeanne Wilson and Rowie Wolf

Interviewers read the essays and nominations in preparation for the interviews. On the interview day, they carpoled to the school campus to interview the girls. While the interviews were being conducted, parents met for an informational meeting about the camps. After the interviews were finished, committee members met at Deedee's home to review interview notes and select the campers and alternates.

Mentor Chair

Dale Richards facilitated contacts between mentors and the girls assigned to them. She distributed information to the mentors, who then telephoned or emailed the girls to ensure they all received the information.

Mentors

The following women were mentors for our 2013 campers: Ellen Alkon, Carolyn Ayers, Denise DeVenuto, Myrna Plost, Deedee Rehtin, Dale Richards, Jeanne Wilson

Orientation Volunteers

Ellen Alkon, Marianne Dewar, Patty Dilks, Carolyn Ayers, Denise DeVenuto, Myrna Plost, Deedee Rehtin, Dale Richards, Susan Wallace and Jeanne Wilson all assisted at the camp orientation, hosted by Torrance AAUW. The Orientation included the campers sponsored by Palos Verdes, Beach Cities and Torrance.

Forms Guru

Marion Martelli revised and printed our many forms and designed and printed the certificates our campers receive at Celebrate Tech Trek. She also scanned and distributed the essays and applications to our interviewers.

Minutes from Branch Planning Meeting

In June, branch members attended a planning meeting for the new branch operating year which began officially with the August Fall Fling program. What follows is a detailed summary of the meeting discussions as recorded by Eileen Edelson.

2013-14 Planning Section

Participants were given the opportunity to write down 3 positive things about the Branch, its operation and activities and 3 things they feel need to be changed, improved upon, added or subtracted. A brief summary appears below, a complete list is available from Sherry May and Eileen Edelson.

Things to Consider:

- Engaging new, newer, younger and less involved members to become more involved
- Encouraging Interest Groups to participate beyond the Group itself
- Don't overextend - Don't try to be everything to everyone - Don't try to do too much
- Budget – how will we cover the cost of activities/project under consideration
- Become more involved with inter-branch and inter-community activities

Considerations for 2013-14

Continue what is attractive to members including outings (with or without lunch), WAWA, and open interest groups which might mean splitting large groups into two separate but identical groups to accommodate more members.

Outings

Continue having them, suggestions included El Segundo Art Museum, Rancho Los Alamitos tour, Los Angeles Central Library docent tour, Behind the Scenes tour of the Palos Verdes Library, Theatrical Productions.

Meetings

Continue having bi-monthly Council meetings at Hesse Park the second Tuesday of the month and consider some Saturday meetings.

Programs

Show documentary film/s that relate to AAUW issues such as Girl Rising followed by discussion (possibly in conjunction with Marymount College or the Library District)

Members with an interest in a topic could present a program, such as Margery Norris has done with Advanced Style (July 2013). Knowledgeable members could give informal talks (a recycle of Omnifore!). Outside speakers could be invited to make presentations on subjects of interest to branch members (mini Ted Talks). A book group program would allow all groups and other interested branch members to read the same book with a group discussion to follow. This was well received in the past.

Marymount - Continue Connection

Consider a Readers Theatre fundraiser to send a young woman from the college to AAUW Leadership Conference in 2014; add this item in the branch operating budget. Show a documentary in conjunction with Marymount which would be followed by a discussion. Consider having students mentor branch members on the use of social media. Involve the Marymount staff and consider use of the college facility.

Minutes from Branch Planning Meeting

Communication / CoastLines

Use more e-blasts – short quick notes and reminders to members of upcoming events and to Interest Group leaders so they can provide information to participants at the start of every meeting. Continue publicity in Daily Breeze, Peninsula People, Peninsula News. Consider doing a bi-monthly CoastLines rather than one every month. Will this work for members and is this a possibility?

New Members

Have more new member events as well as a regular orientation. Find ways to connect new members interested in an Interest Group with a member of the group.

Possible New Interest Groups

Mentioned as possible new interest groups and currently being pursued on a non-permanent basis is the Village Concept and International Women. There may be interest in another book group and splitting or forming a second Art and Artists group.

Community Involvement

Participate in community fairs, hold meetings in conjunction with the Palos Verdes Library District, the League of Women Voters and the Coordinating Council.

International Women

The first meeting of this group was August 28 at the home of Sherry May. The group will meet three times to explore topics, then decide if there is enough interest to continue meeting. Contact Sherry at 310-378-4122 if interested in attending the next meeting on October 23, 10 am to noon.

Questions to be answered include:

- Do we need to educate ourselves in this area?
- What can we do to aid international women who are not as fortunate as we are?
- Could we present a program to make the public more aware of the status of women in other countries?
- Could we “piggy back” with an established organization that is currently aiding international women in need?
